Mark 5:1-20

1. What stuck out to you from the sermon?

2. Read Mark 5:1-20.
    a. What details in Mark 5:1–5 stand out most about the man's condition—physically, socially, and spiritually?

    b. In this story, where do you see chaos—and how does Jesus bring order out of it?

    c. Why do you think the crowd responds with fear and asks Jesus to leave, while the restored man wants to follow Him?

    d. What does this passage teach us about Jesus' authority over the spiritual realm?

    e. Where do you see chaos, bondage, or brokenness in the world—or in your own life—that feels "beyond help"? How does knowing that Jesus is both powerful and compassionate shape the way we trust Him with these situations?

    f. The man's life becomes a testimony after his restoration. What has Jesus done in your life that you could tell others about?

    g. Jesus tells the man, "Go home… and tell how much the Lord has done for you." What might that look like for you this week? How can you support and encourage one another in sharing your testimonies with others in your life?
