Galatians 5:13-26

1. What stuck out to you from the sermon?

2. Read Galatians 5:13-26.
    a. When you hear the phrase “the good life,” what comes to mind?

    b. Why do you think people often confuse freedom with simply doing whatever they want? What kind of freedom is Paul talking about in V 13?

    c. Why do sinful desires often feel freeing in the moment but enslaving in the long run?

    d. How does Paul in Galatians 5 contrast the desires of the flesh with the fruit of the Spirit, and what implications does this have for our daily lives?

    e. The sermon mentioned that the fruit of the Spirit ultimately describes Jesus. How does that change the way you think about spiritual growth?

    f. In what ways has the Holy Spirit changed you over time?

    g. Which spiritual practices help you stay rooted in Christ?

    h. In what ways can you intentionally plant yourself in God's Word daily to keep in step with the Spirit, allowing Him to shape your desires and actions?
